

LEADERSHIP MULTIPLICATION IN YOUR CHURCH

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT IS AN INTERPERSONAL PROCESS

60%

of churches report that they prioritize communal activities like small groups, missional communities, and classes to develop leaders.

LEADERS ARE DEVELOPED IN THE CHURCH

Over half of churches prefer to invest in potential leaders that are already established in their community. Less than 20% of churches seek leaders from outside of their church community.

ACTIVE ENGAGEMENT

The vast majority of churches (84%) report that between 10%-25% of their congregation's members are actively engaged in developing their leadership capacities.

LEARNING COMMUNITIES WITH COACHING

43% of churches report that they lack the mentorship efforts and learning communities necessary to develop great leaders.

SMALL GROUPS

46% of churches report that small groups are the most effective environments in which to cultivate leaders.

FACE-TO-FACE TRAINING

OVER HALF of churches prefer to conduct leadership trainings in person vs. webinars or downloadable resources.

36% PREFER DOWNLOADABLE TOOLS